An efficient method for figuring out a price is to ship out a survey to your current customers. If these clients have already bought an ebook from you, ask for their opinion when it comes to price. Do that by creating a gross sales web page for the new book, but don't include a value on that page. Instead, add numerous links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to aid you in assigning a price to your ebook.

One other technique is to test out costs by making a number of duplicate gross sales pages with completely different prices on every page. Ensure that your gross sales copy is precisely the similar on every web page, and contains your promoting-deal with sentence. Then figure out for each page the conversion ratio between guests to your website and gross sales of your book. It will tell you what your optimum value is.
