If these clients have already purchased an book from you, ask for his or her opinion when it comes to price. Do this by creating a gross sales web page for the brand new e book, but do not include a value on that page. Instead, add quite a lot of links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a price to your ebook.

One other technique is to test out costs by making a variety of duplicate sales pages with different prices on each page. Make sure that your gross sales copy is precisely the same on each page, and contains your selling-handle sentence. Then work out for each web page the conversion ratio between guests to your web site and sales of your book. This may let you know what your optimum worth is.

Finally, when you've written a guide that solves a downside or presents a new technique, your ebook will bring in both traffic and profits.
