An effective method for figuring out a worth is to send out a survey to your current customers. If these customers have already bought a book from you, ask for their opinion when it comes to price. Do this by making a sales page for the new book, but don't embody a price on that page. As an alternative, add a lot of hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a worth to your ebook.

Another technique is to check out costs by making a variety of duplicate sales pages with different costs on every page. Ensure that your sales copy is exactly the same on every web page, and includes your selling-deal with sentence. Then figure out for each page the conversion ratio between guests to your website and sales of your book. This may tell you what your optimum price is.

Ultimately, if you happen to've written a guide that solves a drawback or presents a new technique, your guide will usher in each traffic and profits.
