An efficient method for figuring out a value is to ship out a survey to your present customers. If these customers have already bought an e book from you, ask for his or her opinion in terms of price. Do that by creating a sales web page for the new guide, but do not include a worth on that page. As an alternative, add a number of hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a price to your ebook.

One other strategy is to check out prices by making a number of duplicate gross sales pages with different prices on every page. Ensure your gross sales copy is exactly the same on each page, and contains your promoting-deal with sentence. Then figure out for every page the conversion ratio between guests to your website and gross sales of your book. This may tell you what your optimum price is.

In the end, when you've written a e-book that solves a problem or presents a brand new approach, your guide will usher in both traffic and profits.
